

1925
DESSAU

The government of Anhalt (Dessau) recognises the Bauhaus's new title of "Hochschule für Gestaltung" (institute of design).

- (1) to shape the intellectual, crafts and technical abilities of creatively talented human beings to equip them for design work, particularly construction, and
  - (2) to perform practical experiments, notably in housing construction and interiors, and to develop models for industry and the manual trades
- (ordinance of the Bauhaus Dessau November 1925).*

Same façade. I took the picture in October of 2011.

This famous façade has a clever system to open all the windows in one section of the building: pulleys, axles and chains

Oskar Schlemmer:
"Triadic Ballet" costumes
1926
music by Paul Hindemith

It has 3 acts, 3 participants (2 male, 1 female), 12 dances and 18 costumes.

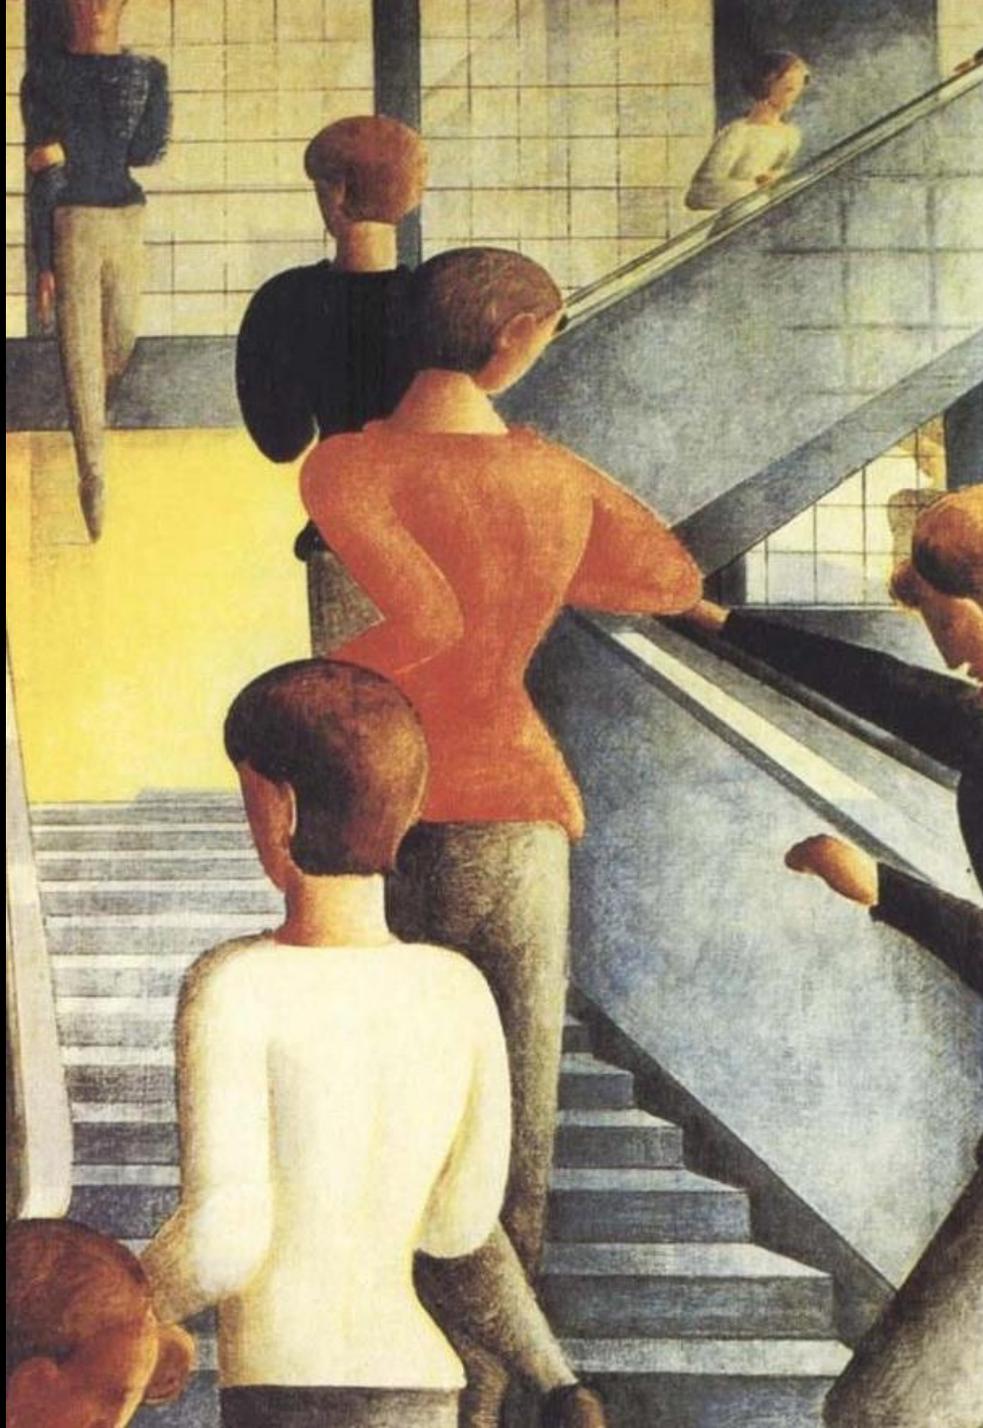

Each act had a different color and mood.

The first three scenes, against a lemon yellow background to affect a cheerful, burlesque mood;

the two middle scenes, on a pink stage, festive and solemn and the final three scenes, on black, were intended to be mystical and fantastic.
